

Please reconsider formulatiing a national Telephone Privacy Law. From the information I have recieved it appears the national act will contain too many loopholes to allow calls. Due to mergers and aquisitions of companies most everyone could be considered a "current Customer" of the solisiting companies. Please reconsider. The new national law will water down any restrictions.